Once in a Lifetime

THE AVERAGE FAMILY BUYS A REALLY GOOD RANGE

Among the "really good ranges," as with everything else, there is one that towers above the rest; one scientifically built to give years additional service; one with a finer finish that makes cleaning it a pleasure. That one is the best—and that is the Copper-Clad.

WE SELL 'EM. COME IN AND LET US EXPLAIN

Local Addenda

Miss Emma Clifton Rucker returned from a visit to friends in Columbia Sunday.

Mrs. M. S. Walpers returned home from a two months visit to her daughters in Colorado and New Mexico. She reports a delightful trip and reports that both her daughters are in the best of health.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities become known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thousands of homes. The fact that it can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take are greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children.

BUSINESS FOR SALE

My stock, tools, place of business and good will in trade are for sale. Prefer to sell all together. Price low if taken at once.

Illinoi Heaters—Guaranteed Air tight. Extra fine floor warmers. Leader Hardware Store, Brunswick, Mo. 37-38

Mrs. Sallie Hubbard returned home from Kansas City Sunday where she had been visiting her daughters; Miss Mary and Mrs. J. H. Simcox.

Mrs. Sam Jordan came last Thursday from Columbia to visit her daughter, Mrs. John Alspaugh. Mr. Jordan arrived Sunday for a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. Alspaugh and Mrs. Jordan.

Mrs. Lee Cuddy and Miss Fronie Friesz drove to Columbia last Wednesday in the latter's Ford sedan. They were the guests of Mrs. Cuddy's daughter Mrs. E. R. Dinwiddie until Saturday afternoon.

It was sincerely regretted that James Staples was compelled to return to Colorado in order to regain his health. He left here last week with George Gardner who had been here for several weeks. Mr. Gardner will remain in Dodge City, Kas. and Mr. Staples will go to Montrose where he formerly lived. The responsibilities of janitor at the Keytesville High School were turned over to Claude Franklin, which duties Mr.

Staples had faithfully performed the past two years.

Miss Elizabeth White spent the week end here with homefolks returning to Moberly Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hattie Holman went to Moberly Friday afternoon to visit Mrs. Joe Ogle and other relatives a few days.

Mrs. Jay Cuddy of Moberly was here last week the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wright. Jay is assisting Mr. H. G. Strumpler of Moberly with the bloodhounds and was here a few hours Wednesday night of last week. He was returning to Moberly with the bloodhounds from a call to Marceline, Mo.

Rev. O. L. Hunt united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage on September the 27th George R. Manson and Miss Cora Maurine Barclay of Moberly. They requested that he withhold the announcement for a time in order that they might surprise their friends. The groom is director of an orchestra in Moberly and the bride has been employed in a department store in that city.

AIONZO EDGAR GREENS

The 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Greens died at Sullivan in Kirksville last Wednesday and the remains were brought to this city the following day.

He was an unusually bright young man and his sudden death was sincerely regretted. He had only been ill a few days and died the day he was taken to the hospital for an operation for appendicitis.

He was a member of the Asbury Sunday School and was a favorite among his acquaintances in the neighborhood.

Funeral services were held at Asbury church Friday afternoon conducted by Rev. Roberts of Dalton. The beautiful floral offerings testified to the respect for the young man and his parents.

We extend deepest sympathy to the parent and three sisters and two brothers of deceased.

2 or 3 Cans of Baking Powder

Are Not Worth the Price of One

If they are the "big can and cheap" kind because they may mean baking failures.

CALUMET

The Economy BAKING POWDER

Don't let a BIG CAN or a very low price mislead you.

Experimenting with an uncertain brand is expensive — because it wastes time and money.

The sales of Calumet are over 150% greater than that of any other baking powder.
